Special Message from the President of the Republic of Indonesia
H.E. Dr. Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono

I am pleased to welcome the distinguished delegates to the 5th World Islamic Economic Forum, which Indonesia is hosting for the first time.

As Patron to the 5th World Islamic Economic Forum, I find it rewarding to witness how, year after year, economic cooperation among Muslim countries has been growing from strength to strength. In fact, the earlier World Economic Forums succeeded in promoting partnership for development not only within the Muslim world but also beyond.

I am confident that this 5th World Islamic Economic Forum will also be successful in showcasing and fostering economic collaboration within the Islamic world as well as between the Islamic world and the rest of the international community.

Indonesia is in the best position to serve as the hub of the wide-ranging interaction that is being advocated and promoted by the Forum. Indonesia is a politically stable and economically dynamic nation with a vast market of 230 million people, abundant natural resources, a highly skilled labour force and a pro-business policy environment.

It is also home to the largest Muslim population in the world, the world's third largest democracy and fourth largest population.

Moreover, we in Indonesia are strong advocates of global partnership as a way of addressing the problems of our time. We believe that global problems require global solutions. Thus it is timely and appropriate that the theme of the Forum is "Food and Energy Security & Stemming the Tide of the Global Financial Crisis."

It is therefore my hope that in the course of the Forum the participants will find feasible ways of addressing the global financial crisis and ensuring food and energy security through a global partnership involving the nations of the Islamic world and the rest of the international community.

Once again, on behalf of the Government and people of the Republic of Indonesia, I warmly welcome the participants to the 5th World Islamic Economic Forum. I also commend the hard work and creativity of the World Islamic Economic Forum Foundation and the Organizing Committee which will ensure the success of this Forum.

H.E. Dr. Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono

President of the Republic of Indonesia

Patron of the 5th World Islamic Economic Forum

Honourary Fellow of the WIEF Foundation

Preface from H.E. Dr. Sofyan A Djalil
Co-Chairman of The 5th WIEF Organizing Committee

Assalamu'alaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh

It is a great honor to host the 5th World Islamic Economic Forum. As the largest Muslim country in the world, Indonesia is the appropriate venue for this forum where the articulation of Islamic principles into business practices are emerging to flourish.

The pressing issue of food and energy security and the recent global financial crisis precipitate an urgency for economic communities worldwide to take charge in improving on their respective sectors and fields. It is therefore our responsibility to maximize the potential of this Forum with the hope that it may bring upon wide and positive impact on Muslim ummah and the world at large.

The 5th World Islamic Economic Forum is not only a continuation of the past forum, but more importantly it will address wide-ranging issues by experts from around the world. The forum consists of several programs, such as Young Leaders Forum with the theme "The Leadership Imperative: Towards a Good Succession Plan", the Businesswomen Forum with the theme "Women Entrepreneurs: The Driving Force Towards a Stronger Future", and the Main Forum with the theme "Food & Energy Security and Stemming the Tide of Global Financial Crisis". The event will be concluded by a Post Forum Programme with the theme "Indonesia in Focus: Tourism and Investment in the Region".

The forum will be attended by many distinguished guests and around 80 prominent international speakers. The participants range from prominent heads of state/government and notable captains of business and industry to young entrepreneurs and businesswomen from various parts of the world with a shared view, and that is to strengthen business collaboration among the Muslim business community at large.

The post forum program will provide the opportunity for our distinguished guests to be introduced to the immense resources that Indonesia has as well as the vast potential that has yet to be maximized. This forum will put emphasis on the various opportunities that Indonesia has to offer with more than 37 potential projects that we have specifically identified. These projects cover various sectors that comprise oil and gas, mining, agriculture, infrastructure, tourism, finance, and many more. I hope the program will give you an insight about the opportunity of the potential mutual benefit with Indonesia.

It is my hope that this year's World Islamic Economic Forum will bring much success through the contribution and cooperation by all of the participants and that this forum may become the platform for the trajectory of new and ongoing constructive relationships within the Muslim business community.

Thank You

Wassalamu'alaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh.

Co-Chairman of The 5th WIEF Organizing Committee

Preface from Tanri Abeng
Co-Chairman of The 5th WIEF Organizing Committee

On behalf of the 5th World Islamic Economic Forum Organizing Committee, we are delighted to welcome our delegates to this prestigious Forum whereby the sole vision is to promote the ongoing economic development and cooperation in the Muslim world as well as the non-Muslim world. With Indonesia as host for the first time, the 5th World Islamic Economic Forum has incorporated a few additional enhancements to the existing accomplished formats of the World Islamic Economic Forums – Pre-Forum and Main Forum.

The Global CEO Panel is our first addition scheduled immediately after the existing Leadership Panel of past Main Forums whereby the Heads of States and top government officials impart their years of wisdom on the world economy from a governmental and policy point of view. To support these pearls of wisdom, the Global CEO Panel will then highlight from a business perspective a more detailed understanding of the present economic development, pressing issues and potential resolutions. Following this CEO Panel, the visible and concrete outcome of such collaborations in the Forum’s economic enterprises will be showcased through the signing of Memorandum of Agreements relating to bilateral or multilateral investments, specifically in this year’s Forum with the host country – Indonesia.

A final addition to the 5th World Islamic Economic Forum is the Post Forum. This Forum will allow the business participants to focus on specific regional investment interests and raise awareness of natural tourism wonders belonging to the host country, with this year being “Indonesia in Focus” as its main theme. We hope the overall Program of the 5th World Islamic Economic Forum will bring novel economic strategies and ventures including stronger and more robust cooperation between the business communities attending the Forum, especially through the ample opportunities during the Forum for business networking.

This exciting Program Book publication features all of our 3 Forums events – Pre-Forum, Main Forum and Post Forum with detailed schedules of all our plenary session topics and speakers. Last but not least, as co-chairman of 5th World Islamic Economic Forum, I extend our renowned Indonesian hospitality in welcoming our honored guests as well as thanking all for the continued support of our partners in the corporate community.

Agenda

8.30 - 9.30	Plenary 1 Beyond Scarcity: Overcoming The Global Food Crisis Not too long ago, oil prices hit the ceiling due to volatile production patterns caused by instability in the Gulf among other factors. This greatly affected the cost of food production, and coupled with the rapid growth of the biofuels industry which takes away food for consumption into the energy market, food prices went rocket high. Lack of international cooperation in this matter also meant that worldwide markets are getting tighter and the pain suffered by the abject poor only lasts longer. This is more so the case in food import-dependent countries where slight changes in price greatly affects the purchasing power of the population, which means millions will go hungry. The gold rush towards biofuel is also taking away food from the hungry. What are the immediate steps to remedy the situation? How can the Muslim world collaborate to mitigate the price pressures? Are there investment opportunities in food for global corporations? Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- H.E. More than a million people are currently employed in biofuels industry but that the figure could rise to 12 million by 2030. Green economy has to grow at a more progressive pace in order to take advantage of manpower needs fuelled by the cost of rapid increase of greenhouse gases. Agenda

14.00 – 15.30	Plenary 3 Stemming the Tide of the Global Financial Crisis The world’s financial crisis in recent months brought about great instability not only to the US economy but to the world at large. With a staggering USD700bn rescue package being passed in the US Parliament to salvage the colossal loss incurred by such names as the Lehman Brothers, Merrill Lynch and US’ biggest insurance company, AIG, and tremors being felt in most part of Europe and Asia, one goes to wonder whether this is the end of an era of debt trading and market speculation. Is debt trading a major factor of the financial crisis? Will the world go into a new era of regulatory economics? How will the new global framework take shape after this crisis is over? Is the world ready to allow market to develop its own financial needs of the society? Could Islamic Banking provide an alternative to the current banking system? Keynote Speaker: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- H.E. “Building on Strong Foundations to become a World Class Business”

Pertamina is committed to becoming a fully fledged business entity rather than a state institution. The positive and entrepreneurial spirit instilled in Pertamina since will support our transformation into a competitive national oil company with balanced upstream and downstream activities.

Pertamina is working actively to increase upstream investment and move away from our historic reliance on downstream activities. However, our downstream activities continue to be upgraded, in order to continue our strong tradition of customer service and support.

Our reform program, to increase competitiveness and efficiency, is well under way. Further liberalization in the Indonesian upstream and downstream sectors reflects broader changes in the entire national economy. Pertamina’s transformation is an important element of this. Above all, Pertamina is aiming to become a true partner for international and national oil companies.

Although the change in Pertamina’s mindset has been most visible to consumers in its downstream activities, significant changes are well underway in the upstream segment. Who We Are: Antam Described

We are a diversified, Indonesian, state-owned, vertically integrated, mining and metals company. Our main strengths are our low cost operations, our vast high quality reserves of nickel and bauxite, our strong financial structure, our forty years of experience, our location in mineral-rich Indonesia, our vast acreage of licensed exploration territories, and our loyal and dedicated staff. Our main commodities are nickel, gold and bauxite.

Our main goal is to create shareholder value by getting bigger and better and doing it in a sustainable and correct way. Our main strategy is to extract as much value as possible from our existing reserves by moving downstream from exporting ore into processing activities. We are also keen to diversify away into other commodities as long as there is a good return and a match with our business. In general we are only interested in Indonesian assets as the returns are higher and we can benefit from our domestic knowledge and experience.

We are 65% held by the Indonesian government, with the other 35% held by the public. Most of the public investors are long term large, foreign institutional investors. Although recently the amount of domestic institutional, as well as retail investors, has been increasing.

We are financially prudent and like to have very little debt and large cash holdings. Only when the time is right will we leverage the balance sheet to invest and grow.

The main program is the Advanced Leadership Program (ALP) consisting of a series of structured modules in which each module consists of classroom activities supplemented by assignments and pre-arranged mentoring as well as the ability to practice lessons learnt in the work place in between module classes.

The ALP is uniquely designed to provide the knowledge and skills required for leaders to meet the challenges of today’s ever increasingly complex global business environment. Courses are given by reputable international professors to lecture on the latest research into leadership and management practices combined with guest speakers from high-ranking authorities from the public and private sectors to share their wealth of experiences. Moreover, executive business networking is offered to participants not only during the Program, but also following its completion. In recognition of its achievements, ECGL was named a strategic partner in leadership development by the World Islamic Economic Forum (WIEF) Foundation.
